

Driving your business with Focus One ERP

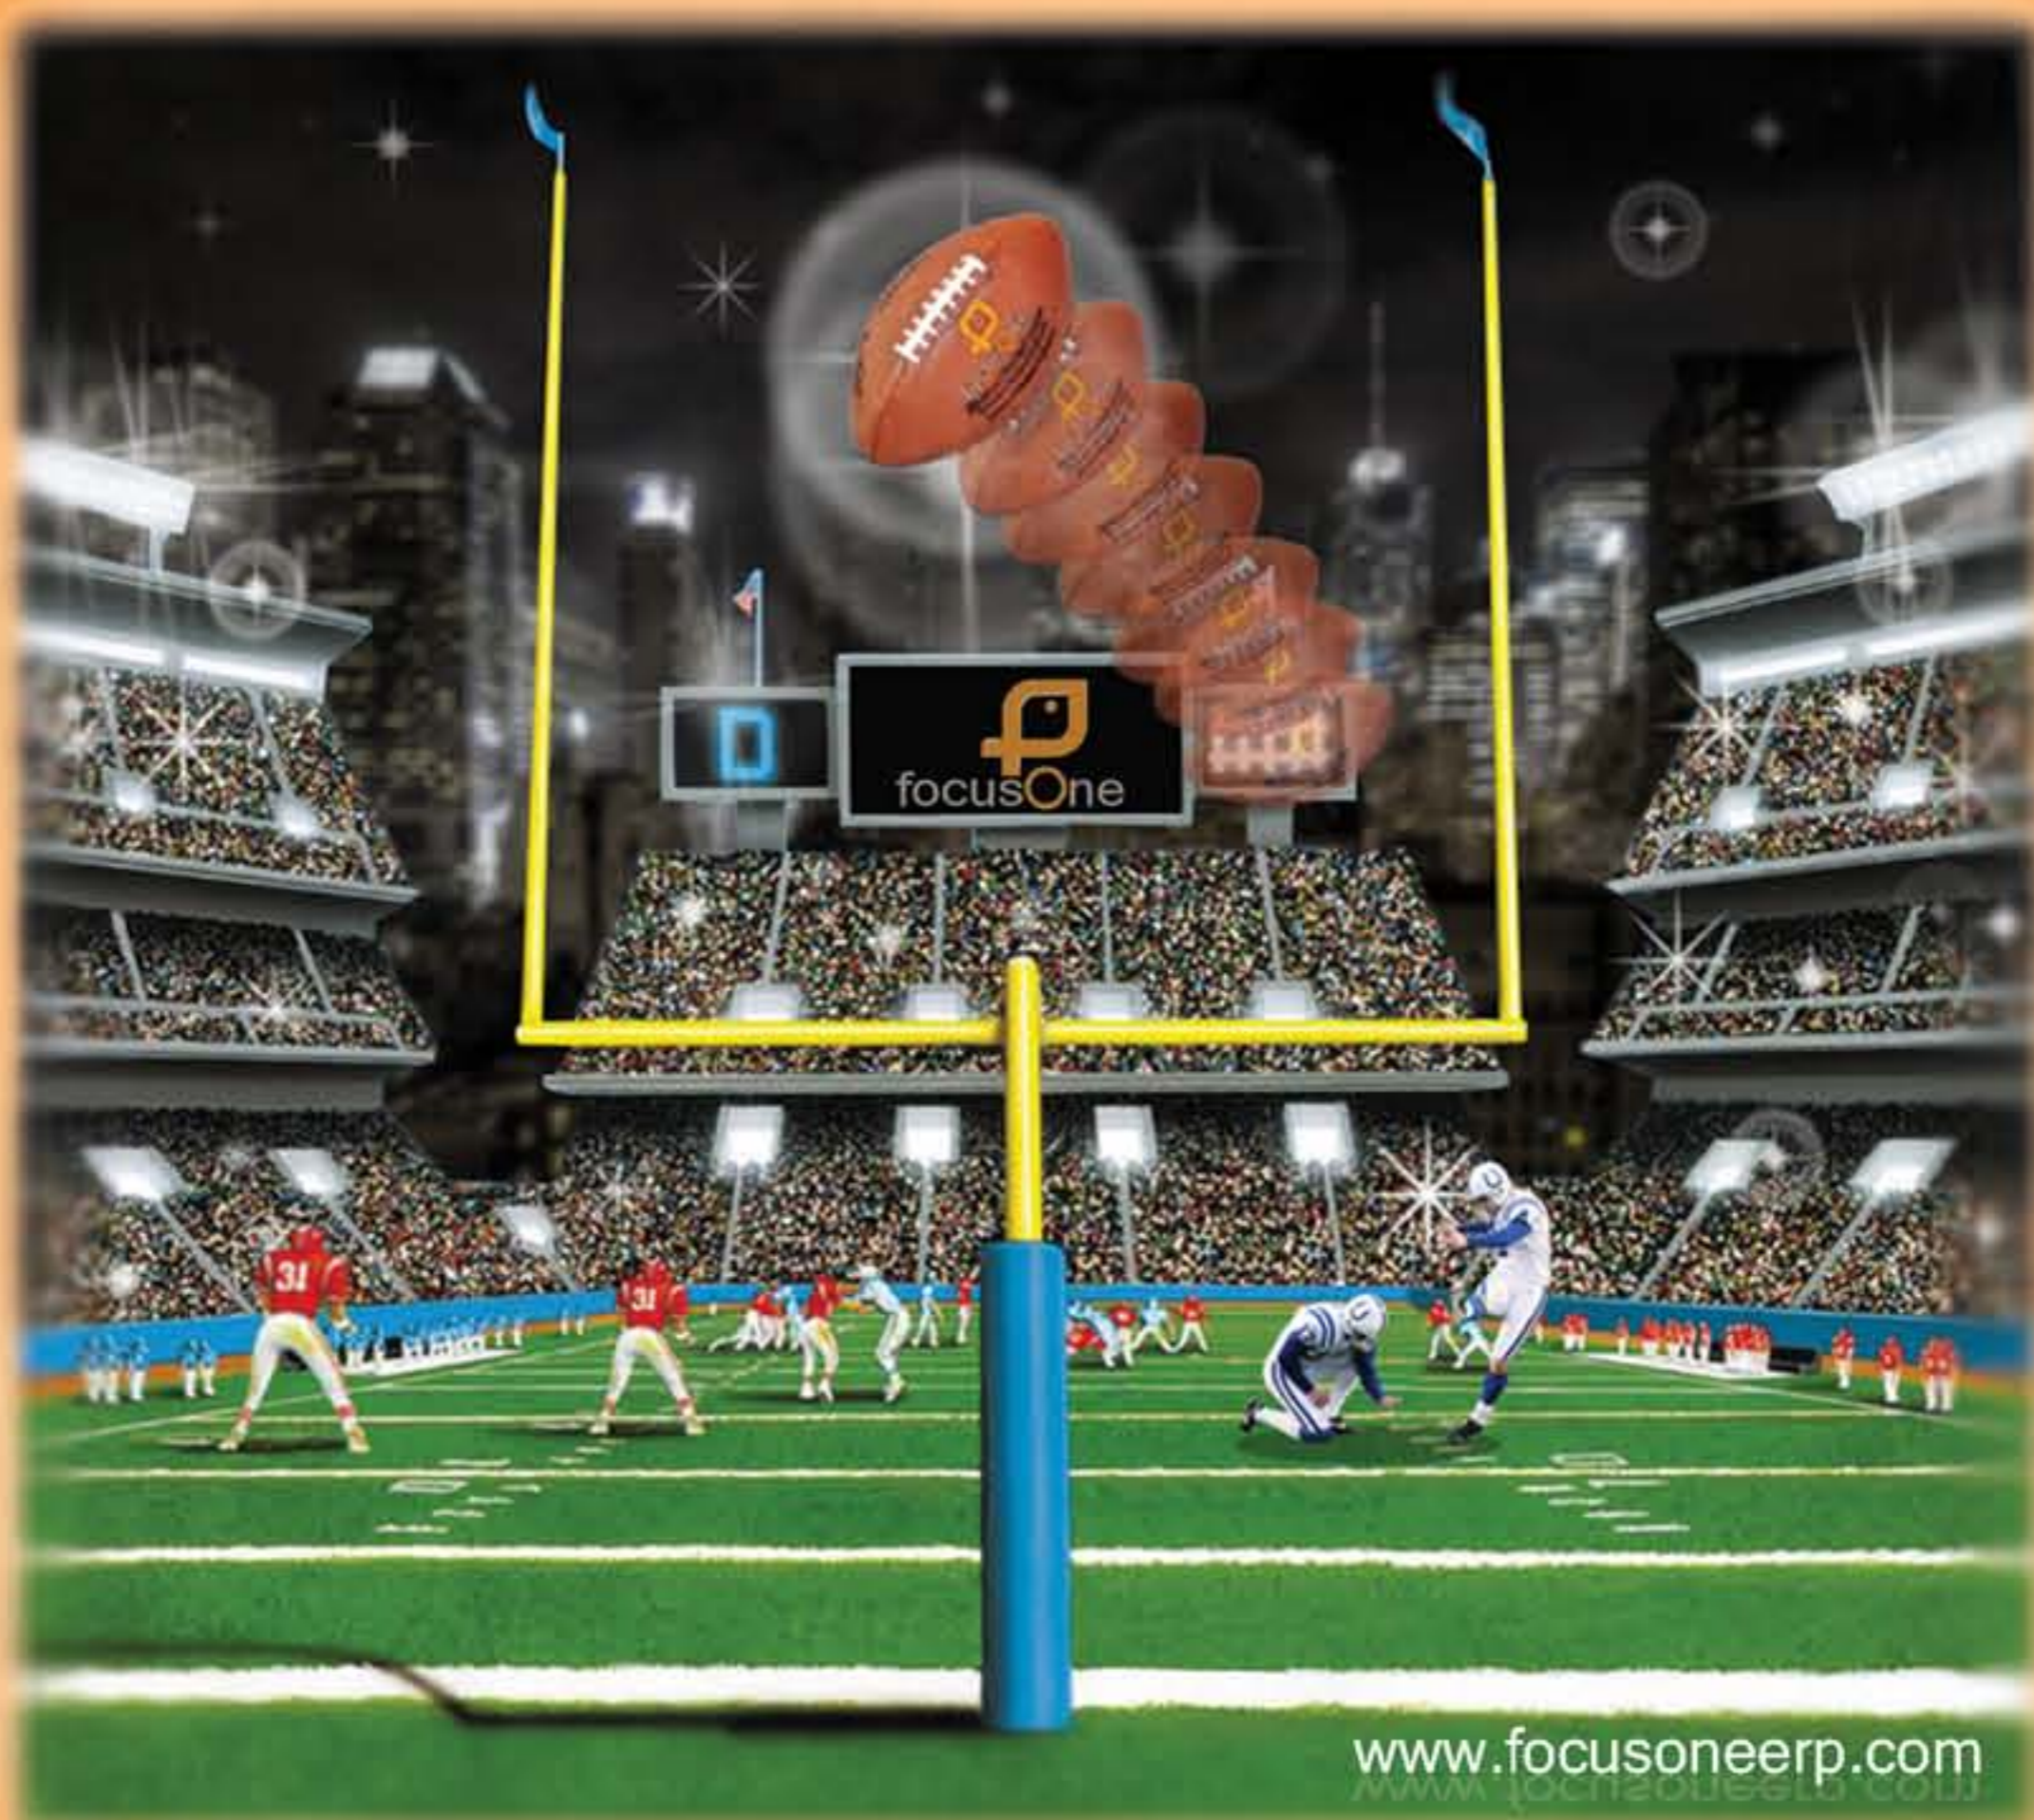

Production Planning Module consist of the below features and function

Production Planning Module consist of the below features and function

1. Related Job Order from Sale Order and auto copy to the job order.
2. Prepared Job Orders of each production line for Production Planning Schedule.
3. Prepare the workshop order of each shop floor to prepare raw material, semi in the production line.
4. During Production Line, Focus One support the back-up plan for adjusting.
5. The standard reports are supporting all the tracking Production Plan, During the production line until finish the process. Moreover, all the process links to the schedule that can make a decision for the production line to report for ontime or not.

Driving your business with Focus One ERP